HOW TO MAKE AN IMPACT BEYOND THE WRITTEN WORD: CHICAGO LUMINARY CATHERINE JOHNS
SPILLS THE SECRETS TO INDEPENDENT WRITERS OF CHICAGO (IWOC)

Whatever the subject, you pride yourself in your ability to make it spring to life via your writing prowess. But in promoting your subject (or yourself!), what if you're called upon to meet a client face-to-face? Or conference on the phone? Can you be as impactful in a conversation as you are in your writing? Who better than the dynamic Catherine Johns to give us the lowdown on how to present yourself in a way that emanates confidence, connects with clients and boosts your business. You may know Ms. Johns as the ebullient talk show host who for years has had the ears of Chicagoland radio listeners. Today, she's an in-demand communications coach, and at IWOC's next meeting on Tuesday, September 8th, will be presenting "Impact and Influence in Real Time," a topic Johns exemplifies to the hilt.

Author of Show Up and Shine: Simple Steps to Boost Your Confidence and Charisma, Ms. Johns previously spent 18 years at WLS-AM 890 as news anchor to the legendary Larry Lujack, sassy side-chick to John Records Landecker and hosting her own popular talk show. As the go-to communications coach of execs and entrepreneurs, Johns teaches real-life skills on how to develop a personal presence that commands attention, earns respect, radiates expertise and ultimately increases your earning power – as her numerous fans/clients will attest.

You already possess the resources. Learn how on how to bring them out by coming out to the meeting. You'll be in for an "edu-taining" evening for sure!
